NO REST FOR GUTTENBURG NAGS.

Winter Racers Struggle Through Sleet on a Frozen and Slippery Track.

AL FARROW CUT LOOSE.

The Storm Failed to Keep the Regulars Away and the Bookmakers Were Happy.

OULD the horses that were sent to the post yesterday at Guttenburg have been able to speak they would have vigorously denounced their owners for sending them from the stable in such miserable weather. It was, indeed, downright cruelty to expose horsefiesh of any value to such a storm, as there was a fall of sleet until the fourth race, when it became slightly warmer, and rain fell in torrents the balance of the day. In spite of the weather conditions, however, there were about thirty-five hundred people on hand to speculate upon the chances of the performers, and, in consequence, the usual amount of business was done in the ring. The track was hard, as it was freezing most of the afternoon, and this, together with the very tough weather, caused a few scratches. In the opening contest, of seven furlongs, seven or eight entries took part. Bohemian was the favorite, and he won without trouble. Dixie was first choice in the second race, of six furlongs, but Goldstep, 7 to 1 at the post, landed the money by a head, the favorite being second. The Telemachus-Hope colt, the choice, was home in advance in the third event, Clara Porter obtaining the place. The distance was six and a half furlongs, and seven started.

In the fourth race, of five furlongs, Rancocas and Sunday were the only performers of five en-tries. The latter was the favorite, and he won as

A fog began to settle upon the track as the horses were called for the fifth race, of one mile and a sixteenth, and it was so thick that on the backstretch and far turn the colors could not be seen at the half mile and three-quarters. There were five in the race, Gloster being the favorite. Al Farrow, who opened at 3% to 1 and then increased to 8 to 1, but at the post fell to 6 to 1, had no trouble in winning. There was some kind of a yarn in the betting ring that Farrow had broken out of his stable during the previous night and was found wandering ing the previous night and was found wandering about the track in the morning, but was not believed. Gloster was fourth at the finish.

Landseer was the choice in the last event, of seven furlongs, but Wandernent, second in speculative consideration, won away off. Landseer was third. The fog became thicker in this race and the horses could only be seen distinctly in the last three-eighths of a mile. Details follow:—

MORE MAGNATES MEET.

THE AMATEUR BASEBALL LEAGUE ELECTS OFFI-CERS AND TRANSACTS OTHER BUSINESS.

Amateur Baseball League ing at No. 53 Broadway yesterday. The clubs were represented as follows :- Staten Island Athletic Club, H. Strebeigh; Staten Island Cricket Club, G. E. Scoffeld and Pitcher "Jim" Tyng; Englewood Field Club, J. Miller; Crescent Athletic Club, W. I. Smith. In the absence of President Halstead, Secretary Scofield occupied the chair. The first business of the meeting was the election of officers, resulting as follows:—President—J. Miller. Vice President—H. Strebeigh. Secretary and of officers, resulting as follows:—President—J. Miller. Vice President—H. Strebeigh. Secretary and Treasurer—G. E. Socheid. These gentlemen, together with W. I. Smith, of the Crescent Athletic Club, were also chosen to act as the Executive Board of the League.

The League was reorganized with the same clubs as last year—the Staten Island Athletics, the Staten Island Crickets, the Englewood Field Club and the Crescent Athletic. The committee appointed at the last meeting of the League to induce the New York. Manhattan and New Jersey Athletic clubs to withdraw if m the A.A.U. League and enter the ranks of the Amateur League failed to make a report, so that it can be taken for granted that these three clubs will remain with the Inion. One of the committeemen admitted to me that the New Jersey Athletic Club had been approached Indirectly, but it was of ne avail.

A new rule will probably so into effect this season regarding college players. It will be to the effect that no club in the League can have the services of a college player whose college is outside of twenty-live miles from New York city. This will do away with the scarring of Harvard, Yaies and Frincaton players during the championship season. The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the Chair. Considerable disastifaction was expressed by Measra Strebeigh and Correy, the later arriving after the meeting was over, at the failure of the delegator to appoint a schedule committee. It is understood, however, that this committee will be appointed at a meeting to be held in a few weeks.

The Annatour League is a much older organization than the Amateur Athletic Union League, and differs from the latter in that is allows its clobs the privelege of employing professional pitchers and catchers, while the A.A.C. teams are composed entirely self amsteurs. There is great rivalry between these two bodies and not a little jeal-our.

NOTES OF THE DIAMOND. Sid Farrar may play first base for the Washingtons. J. Earle Wagner, in a letter to the Henald, says he is sure to get Bierbauer.

The Brooklyn Players' League Club still owes Manager Charles Ward back salary, The National Board mosts in Chicago on Friday, when the cases of Bierbauer, Stovey and Mack will be decided The Harvard nine is practising in Winslow's Back Bay Rink in Boston under Captain Dean and John Clarkson.

The League and Association clubs should have had their lists of players in N. E. Young's effice yesterday. What was New York's list. What was Now York's list, Billy Nash has telegraphed his salary figures to the Boston Lengue club. The Triumvirs have accepted them and Nash will be mailed a contract at once.

Reger Conner, Jim O'Rourke, Ed Crane and Danny Richardson are expected in town in a few days. Tim Maefe has gone away on husiness for three weeks.

Keefo has gone away on business for three weeks.

Thoss players who not lone ago claimed they would stay to California this season rather than suffer a cut in the protection of the national agreement.

The Cleveland club has completed the deal whereby Stricker and Radford are to be exchanged for second hasman Childs, whose release from Syracuse was purchased by Prince, of Boston, not long ago, for $2,000.

A baseball crank said the other day:—"If the New York club releases Buckley many persons will be disappointed. His superb catching of Rusic last year was one of the activation all over the Longue circuit. Let Ewing catching che and Crane and young Ciarke can take care of Welch, but by all means keep Rusic and Buckley together. They're a great pair."

It now turns out that A. G. Spaiding has not paid the gethor. They're a great pair."

It now turns out that A. G. Spaiding has not paid the salaries of the Chicago Brotherhood players, as he intended to do the list of the month. Williamson, Baldwin, Bob Pettit and Martin Sullivan, who went round the world with Spaiding, were compelled to graw upon the Chicago president for S&600 agreeate which they failed to return. New Spaiding wants to take it out of the S&000 allotted to the Brotherhood players, it is said, each to suffer a pro rata reduction. Chicago people fail to understand why here Brotherhood players should take the notes of Williamson, Baldwin, Pettit and Sullivan, contracted before the Brotherhood was organizad, and when only Williamson and Baldwin were members of the Chicago Players' club last season.

Experts Still Rolling High Scores and Excellent Averages on Many Maple Alleys.

HE principal topic of conversation among bowlers in this city, Brooklyn and New Jersey yesterday was the HERALD bowling tournament for the amateur championship, to begin at the Academy alleys, No. 114 East Fourteenth street, next Monday night.

At the prominent athletic clubs and bowling alleys the tournament was discussed, and it was the unanimous opinion of the crack wielders of the wooden sphere that the quality of the teams selected to compete in the tourney was of the highest possible standard.

The men who will roll with the different teams represent the cream of the bowlers in New York, Brooklyn and New Jersey that have made wonderful records with the ten pins. The teams, too, have records of which they may well feel proud. AN EXPERT SIZES UP THE TEAMS.

A well known bowler, after looking over the list of the clubs entered, said to me:-"The HERALD tournament held last year was an unqualified success. The scores—both team and individual—were away beyond expectations, but judging from the teams which will play this year those scores, great as they were, will not be a marker to those that will be made in this tournament. "Why, the HERALD has a finer collection of first class clubs in its coming tournament than has ever met in a similar tourney before. Take the Echos of Brooklyn, with a record of 1,000 for a five generally knock the pins down for a 200 score. Of man team, and with Fell and Sellers, men who generally knock the pins down for a 200 score. Of course the team does not always touch four figures, but they will come pretty near winning their share. "The Pheenix team of Harlem also has a great record. They took second prize in the Herallo sories last year and they will make even a better showing this year. Many of the best clubs in Brooklyn and New Jersey have been defeated by the Phenix boys, who are now playing in better form than ever.

"The Jersey City Athletic Club, which won first prize in the Herallo tourney of 1890, has a team that for steady bowling has few equals. The Jersey boys opened the season in rather poor luck and were handleapped by the illness of several of their most reliable men. They are now, however, hitting the head pin in much better shape and stand second in the Amateur Athletic League.

"A team that will be in the race is from the Manhattan Athletic Club. This team has been at a disadvantage for some time owing to the lack of proper accommodations for practice work. Since the opening of the organization's new house the work of the team has improved steadily and it is now putting up a better game than other clubs in the Amateur Athletic Bowling League. The boys are getting in some fine work at present, and if the "Cherry Diamond" does not finish among the leaders many good judges will be disappointed. In Saze, Mitchell, MacLellan, Luqueer and Turnbull the Manhattans have five bowlers who, when in good condition, can roll a score of 900 without much trouble.

THE NEW BILL THAT MAY PASS THE LEGISLA-

TURE GENERALLY APPROVED. The Committee on Codification and Revision of the Game Laws of the State of New York made its report on January 29. It is in the shape of a bill which revokes all previous game laws and become so complicated that the Governor, when he appointed the committee, said that things had he appointed the committee, said that things had gotten into such a condition that he could not tell what bills to sign and what to veto.

A single law, divided into twelve articles, containing in all 278 short sections, will cover all the law for the protection of game in this Siate, upon the passage of the bill by the Legislature, and its provisions are to take effect July 1, 1891. The work has, of course, been largely in the line of codification of the existing laws, and but faw important changes are suggested. Among those, however, are some well worstly of mention.

The Fiel Commission is reorganized, there being but three members, instead of five; this change has nothing to recommend it, as it morely throws more work upon it will be a fine to the strength of the solution of the sirable man to take the office without componsation. The Fiels of the solution of the law of the sirable man to take the office of the solution of t

Trout mider seven inches in length and black bass under three juarters of a pound must not be taken.

The ornithologists are generally satisfied with the bill, mbodying, as it does, the provisions of the law they had assed some time ago providing for the issuing of certificates of authority to kill birds for scientific purposes a framed as to more effectually protect than does the present law.

Adelsdorfer, who was in fine condition, kept on, covering the distance in 40m. 45s. This is the second time the Pastime's crack has won the trophy, and if he again succeeds in securing it the bronze will become his personal property.

VULTURES FROM INDIA AND NEW YORK'S STREETS

An Old Pondicherry Bird Lectures Commissioner Hans Beattie at the Poultry and Pigeon Show.

WORTH THEIR WEIGHT IN GOLD.

Enormous Prices Realized for Fine Fowls at the Best Exhibition Ever Held in This City.

HE rabbits hid their diminished heads. Belgian hares wished they never had been born. There was a lot of emulous rivalry yesterday in the basement of the Madison Square Amphitheatre. The Pondicherry vultures were the popular feature. They were eager for gore. They dined on pigeons, spring chickens, back-bones of rabbits and the hind log of a "chappie" who had ventured too close to their fine family mansion in the basement. Mr. H. S. Beattle, the present cleaner of our dirty streets, took in the poultry show. He was inveigled to the vultures' nest. The cock vulture, a magnificent bird, shook hands with him at once. He said :- "My dear Mr. Beattle, it does my heart good to meet one of my colleagues in this sunless clime. I hear you have great difficulty in cleaning the New York streets. Permit me to solve the problem for you. Take a lesson from the natives of the big cities on the lesson from the natives of the big cities on the Coromandel coast of India, southward from Negapatam to the mouths of the Ganges on the north.

"Our giorious tribe has been constituted the cleaners of the streets of the towns and the cities on that coast. We roost on the houses and on the cocoanut palms. We are sacred birds. Nobody dares shoot us, but we clean the streets perfectly. My idea is that you should imports few of our genus. We thrive everywhere where garbage flourishes. We should soon get acclimatized, and, by the sacred volumes of the Vedas, I vow your troubles would soon be over." Mr. Beattis muttured a few excuses, said he would write another letter to the Mayor, and just at this moment the band began to play and he escaped in the confusion.

band began to play and he escaped in the confusion.

The vulture's idea should not be despised. If we cannot clean the New York streets by the aid of the human biped why not call in the aid of our feathered brothers and sisters?

A LARGE CROWD PHERENT.

Snow, hall, slush and rain couldn't keep the poultry and pigeon enthusiasts away from the show. There was a very large crowd present and they all seemed to be enjoying themselves. President Colgate said the exhibition was a huge success. The sales had been great in spite of the bad weather. Symptoms of a deluge couldn't keep away the true poultry and pigeon fanciers. They are like the lotos caters of old—they are bound to get there.

Some of the most devoted "cranks" bedecked the cages of their newly acquired pets with flowers. Roses, white tulips and hyscinths were bought in great profusion.

The purchasers of "swell" hirds do not, as a rule, like to see their names in print. They fear public ridicule. There are, however, some people who are not ashamed to chronicle to the world their love of the feathered tribe. Among the high prices realized at the show yesterday were:

George Furdue to F. T. Underhill, one light Brahma, $50; George Furdue to F. T. Underhill, one light Brahma, $50; George Furdue to F. T. Underhill, one light Brahma, $50; George Furdue to F. T. Terry, four black Lanshans, $125.

This is not a bad showing, but Mr. Charles M. Griffin, one of the directors of the exhibition, told me that at least $16,000 worth of poultry had changed hands during the show. He gave me the following list as some of the sales of the fanciers to the public:—

"BILLY" WOODS PUTS MIKE CONLEY TO SLEEP IN TWO BOUNDS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HEBALD.] New ORLEANS, La., Feb. 9, 1891 .- "Bob" Fitzsimmons is still a marcot. He stood behind "Billy" Woods, of Denver, to-night when Woods knocked the so-called "Ithaca Giant," Mike Conley, out in

The fight took place in the rooms of the Audubon Club, for a purse of $1,000, $250 to go to the loser. It was a slugging match from start to finsh, and Conley was outfought from the first exchange of blows.

Woods, who weighed 172 pounds, was seconded by "Bob" Fitzsimmons and "Bob" Farrell, while Professor Clark and "Tom" Casey performed the same service for Conley, who entered the ring weighing 177 pounds. John Duffy, the club's instructor, acted as referee. Nine hundred people witnessed the fight, paying $3 each for the privilege. Time was called at half past nine o'clock. The first round opened with an attempt on Conley's part to reach the Denver man's wind. It was neatly stopped. Conley followed up the attack with a right hander, which fell short, and Woods then began to show his mettle. He went in with right and left, catching Conley in the face and on the body. The thissa champion clinched to avoid punishment, and as they broke away Woods landed on the neck, knocking Conley down.

While hanging on the ropes Woods struck him twice amid cries of "Foul!" which was not allowed. The remainder of the round was spent in a short exchange of blows, the men fighting all over the ring and neither appearing to have much advantage. structor, acted as referee. Nine hundred people ring and neither appearing to have much advantage.

CONLEY KNOCKED OUT.

When time was called for the second round Conley started to force the lighting. He led with his left, but fell short, and followed with his right, Woods again jumping out of the way. Conley attempted to follow his man up and received a right hander in the face that took all the fight out of him. He staggered back and then clinched, hanging on to Woods to avoid punishment.

As they broke away Woods advanced upon the Phaces man and planted a swinging right hander on his face that brought Conley to his knees. Conley staggered to his feet in a dazed sort of way, but went down again before a left handed punch in the face. He hung on the ropes until the eight seconds expired and then advanced to meet Woods, who met him with his left. Conley staggered back exposing his neck and Woods landed with a right handed swing which put Conley to sleep. At the end of twelve rounds his second picked him up and carried him to his corner, where he soon recovered sufficiently to be carried to his dressing room.

THE M'CARTHY-DIXON FIGHT OFF. INT TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD !

Boston, Mass., Feb. 9, 1891.—The managers of the Puritan Athletic Club telegraphed Tom O'Rourke, manager and trainer of George Dixon, this afternoon that they declare the match between McCarthy and Dixon off, as they cannot get a suitable place in which to hold the battle. Both parties have conse-quently drawn their stakes.

The managers of the Audubon Club, of New Or-leans, telegraphed Captain Cooke this morning ask-ing if Johnny Grimn will fight Tommy Warren on March 2.

It was generally known in this city yesterday morning that Jimmy Wakely and Dick Roche. managing directors of the Puritan A.C., had abanto the denizens of New street.

doned all hopes of having a battle take place under their auspices. It was ascertained upon inquiry that there was no chance of its being allowed to that there was no chance of its being allowed to come off at Cakland Rink, Jersey City, and when that last prop was knocked from under them they washed their hands of the whole aliair, and will pocket their losses like the sporting men they are known to be.

Buth the puglists have gone out of training, and McCarthy was at the Guttenburg race track yester day atternoon trying to pick the winners. It was said by some of his friends that he was still willing to meet the Boston boy, and to do so would fighthim with skin tight gloves in any city where there was a chance for the battle to take place to a finish or would do so in private.

SAYS "HALL IS A DUFFER."

New Onlmans, Feb. 9, 1891.—Concerning the challenge issued at Chicago on behalf of Jim Hall, the latter says:-

Hall is a duffer and I don't propose to fight him or any other man who has been besten by a man of Owen Sullvan's calibre. Hall does not want to fight me and could not be made to do it. All be wants is to get good acrotising at my expense. I've made Jim Hall quit in five rounds twice, once in public and once in private. The only time he ever made me quit was by agreement at a fake exhibition. I'll pay no attention to the challenge. My next fight will be with Ted Pritchard, the kinglish champion.

DID THEY SPAR FOR MONEY?

SPECULATION IS RIVE REGARDING CHARGE AGAINST RELLY AND DOSE.

The interview published in yesterday's HERALL in which Mr. "Sam" D. See, of the Acorn Athletic Association, stated that he knew of two amateur boxers who had received money, instead of trophies, for exhibitions, and that the two men referred to were "Sam" Kelly, of the West Side Athletic Club, and "Jimmy" Rose, of the New Jersey Athletic Club, created a sensation in athletic circles. The charges were discussed everywhere and the boxers themselves were in a state of apprehension as to the final outcome of the matter.

"Jimmy" Rose denied that he boxed for money before the Richmond County Athletic Club. He said that he "Jimmy" Rose denied that he boxed for money before the Richmond County Athletic Club. He said that he asked Mr. See if he had the prize and the latter said, "Yes I have it," and showed a gold watch. "Billy" Robertson, who wisnessed the bout between Kelly and Rose, also said that he heard "Sam" See say exactly the same thing. John Eckhardt, the referee of the bout, said:—"I thought it very strange I had not been given the prize when I cutered the ring, and I asked Sam See what the prize was. He replied, 'A gold watch,' and pulled a gold imposee from his vest nocket."

A prominent official of the Amsteur Athletic Union, in speaking of the matter, said:—"In view of the fact that the affair has been given so much publicity; I think it is only fair that the Union should summin Mr. See to appear at the next meeting and toll all he knows about the fight. I think that Mr. See has been very slow in a fact of the matter. How know they a more matter, it is known to be a first instead of waiting four months, as he has done.
"Now if this charge against Kelly is true, why didn't Mr. See protest him at the championship boxing competitions, instead of allowing him to, compate! Mr. See acted as timer at that tourney and made no effort to provent Kelly from sparring with Tim Murphy."

It was the opinion of a good many athletes that Mr. See had shown decidedly had taste in boasning of what he knew about amateur fighting, instead of laying the facts before the proper suthorilies.

Secretary Sullivan, who is one of the trustees of the New Jersey Athletic Club, says that the club will investigate the charges against Rose and, if true, its of the expelled from the club.
